

BUSINESS of the month

APRIL 2012 MARKS A VERY SPECIAL 5-YEAR ANNIVERSARY FOR BERMUDA'S POPULAR BOLERO BRASSERIE.

Tucked down an alleyway just off Front Street in the City of Hamilton, this casual classy bistro is full of warmth and charm. Since its opening Bolero has maintained its popularity with locals and visitors alike and is particularly popular with the local business community, especially during a busy bustling lunch afternoon.

Jonny Roberts, originally from Britain, had like many Chefs around the world dreamed of opening his own restaurant since his teenage years. When he heard that the space was for sale, he moved quickly and made the necessary enquires and steps to secure the space fulfilling a long time dream. With his wife Fiona, Jonny obtained the keys to the space on January 1st, 2007 and got started right away with renovations and preparations to open Bolero Brasserie in April of 2007. With little advertising, a great team from the start, advice from a close restaurateur friend and a lot of ambition, Bolero Brasserie took off and is still going strong today.

Bolero is one of Bermuda's most appealing restaurants offering a typical Brasserie / Bistro style atmosphere with an extensive menu that changes 4 to 5 times per year.

Bolero brasserie's classic menu features items such as...

ESCARGOTS "VENTRECHE" snails, sausage, peppers, lots of garlic
 POSH EGG BENEDICT poached egg, Parma ham, truffle Hollandaise, toasted baguette
 FOIE GRAS PATE spiced date chutney
 SPICY PAPPARDELLE tomatoes, chorizo, cumin, chilli oil, lots of cilantro
 STEAK OR VEAL FRITES grilled tenderloin or grilled veal chop; Béarnaise or pepper sauce, choice of fries

CHEFS DON'T FEEL PAIN

Not only does Jonny Roberts work behind the scenes creating a fantastic menu, preparing unforgettable meals, meeting and greeting clients shaking their hands personally, he is devoted husband and father and last year he published his first coffee table style cookbook with the help of friend and photographer Scott Hill. Chef's Don't Feel Pain is full of colorful stories about Jonny's life, stunning photography and mouth watering easy to follow recipes. It is available at Bolero Brasserie as well as local book stores across the island.

Bolero has won 5 (Bermudian Magazine) Best of Bermuda Awards to date, including categories such as best new restaurant, waiter, attentive staff and this year's best in fine dining and the coveted Award of Excellence.
